Issuance of Writ

On October 8, 2003, the Twenty-fourth Saskatchewan Legislature was dissolved, pursuant to section 3 of The Legislative Assembly and Executive Council Act, by the Honourable Dr. Lynda Haverstock, Lieutenant Governor of Saskatchewan. Also on the 8th of October, an Order of the Lieutenant Governor in Council was passed, pursuant to section 31 of the Act, directing the Chief Electoral Officer to issue a Writ of Election to each of the Province's fifty-eight (58) constituency returning officers enabling the Saskatchewan electorate to go to the polls on November 5, 2003. An Election Calendar for the Twenty-fifth provincial general election is included on the last page of the Official Report.

At dissolution, standing in the Legislative Assembly was: 28 New Democrat, 26 Saskatchewan Party, and 4 Independent.

Provincial Constituency Boundaries

The provincial constituency boundaries were enacted in 2002 under The Representation Act, 2002, based on the recommendations of the Constituency Boundaries Commission, 2002 (the "Commission"), as established under The Constituency Boundaries Act, 1993. The Commission recommended the establishment of fifty-eight (58) provincial constituencies inclusive of two (2) northern constituencies and fifty-six (56) southern constituencies of equal voter size. The Province's constituency boundaries and Directory of Communities are set out in Appendices IX, X and XI.

Constituency Returning Officers

An important part of maintaining election readiness is having constituency returning officers for the Province's fifty-eight (58) constituencies. The Province's returning officers, for each of the Province's constituencies, were nominated based on the recommendations of Saskatchewan's registered political parties. Appointed by Order of the Lieutenant Governor in Council, constituency returning officers were responsible for the free and fair conduct of the Province's twenty-fifth general election. See Appendix I for a listing of constituency returning officers.

Provincial Political Parties

The November 5, 2003, election acknowledged seven (7) provincial political parties for purposes of fielding candidates. Pursuant to section 231 of the Act, the Office recognized the following political parties in the Register of Political Parties[1]:

New Democratic Party, Sask. Section
New Green Alliance

[1] The following Statement of Votes Appendices abbreviate the names of the Province's registered political parties as follows: New Democratic Party, Sask. Section - N.D.P.; New Green Alliance - NGA; Progressive Conservative Party of Saskatchewan - P.C.; Saskatchewan Liberal Association - L.; Saskatchewan Party - Sask.; The Indigenous Party of Saskatchewan - I.P.S.; Western Independence Party of Saskatchewan (W.I.P.) - W.I.P.

Progressive Conservative Party of Saskatchewan
Saskatchewan Liberal Association
Saskatchewan Party
The Indigenous Party of Saskatchewan
Western Independence Party of Saskatchewan (W.I.P.)

In December, pursuant to clause 227(1)(b) of the Act, the Office deleted The Indigenous Party of Saskatchewan from the Register of Political Parties for failure to field the minimum number of candidates for the Province's twenty-fifth general election. Under clause 227(1)(b) of the Act, a registered political party must field a minimum of ten (10) candidates for purposes of participating in a provincial general election. As a result, the Office deregistered the Indigenous Party effective December 29, 2003.

See Appendix II for a list of registered political parties, their respective leaders and chief official agents.

Candidate Nomination

Nomination of candidates concluded on October 20, 2003. At close of nomination 235 candidates had been nominated: 58 New Democrat, 27 New Green Alliance, 11 Progressive Conservative, 58 Liberal, 58 Saskatchewan Party, 18 Western Independence and 5 Independent. One of the 235 candidates withdrew their candidacy prior to the election. Appendix III sets out candidates by provincial constituency.

Enumeration

From the 8th of October through to the 17th, an enumeration of eligible electors was conducted for each of the Province's 2,722 polling divisions. The Province's enumerators sat on November 1, 2003, pursuant to section 26 of the Act, to make necessary revisions to the voters' lists. As a result of these efforts, 603,645 provincial residents were declared eligible to vote, as established on the revised voters' lists. Those residents not recognized on the revised voters' list were able to register to vote by swearing a declaration at an advance poll or on polling day.

Voting

On the 30th and 31st days of October and the 1st, 2nd and 3rd days of November, 153 advance polls were conducted in the Province's fifty-eight (58) constituencies. To facilitate electoral participation, special polling stations were established in sixty-nine (69) hospitals and five (5) remand centres. Regular polling stations were open from 9:00 am to 8:00 pm C.S.T. on the 5th of November enabling the Province's 603,645 eligible voters the opportunity to exercise their democratic franchise. Eligible voters unable to attend either a regular, special or advance poll were entitled to vote by absentee ballot.

Electoral Results

Unofficial electoral results were published on the evening of the November 5, 2003 resulting in 30 New Democrat and 28 Saskatchewan Party Members-elect. None of the candidates were elected by acclamation. Deposits were forfeited by 136 of the Province's 235 candidates, pursuant to section 47 of the Act, for not obtaining at least one half of the total number of valid votes cast for the candidate elected. The 136 candidates forfeiting their deposits included: 6 New Democrat, 27 New Green Alliance, 11 Progressive Conservative, 52 Liberal, 17 Saskatchewan Party, 18 Western Independence and 5 Independent.

On November 17, 2003, constituency returning officers tabulated the results of votes cast in the hospital and remand centre polls and by absentee ballot. These figures were then reflected in the relevant constituency results concluding the final count. Upon completion of the final count, on November 28, 2003, each of the Province's constituency returning officers made a Return to the Writ of Election.

On December 12, 2003, the Office published in The Saskatchewan Gazette (Vol. 99, No. 50) a notice of receipt of the Return to the Writ and the names of all fifty-eight (58) candidates elected.

There were no judicial recounts pursuant to section 155 of the Act.

See Appendices IV, V and VI for the electoral results of the Province's fifty-eight (58) constituencies.

Controvert Proceedings

On the 18th of December, 2003, the New Democratic Party, Sask. Section, pursuant to The Controverted Elections Act, filed a petition in the Saskatchewan Court of Queen's Bench seeking to set aside the electoral result for the constituency of Lloydminster. At time of writing, the controvert proceedings remain ongoing before Justice T.C. Zarzeczny.

Comparative Vote and Ballot Summary
